2		"Good morning, Edwin," Dad said. He was talking to Edwin's dog, Ruff. Then he turned to Edwin. "Good morning, Ruff," he said to his shaggy son.
3		He could tell that his dad was only joking, but Edwin did not laugh or smile. Instead, he pushed his hair off his face and said, "I'm not Ruff. I'm EDWIN! See? Ruff is the one with the tail."  "Why, I think you are right," answered Dad. "I don't know how I could have mixed you up with Ruff."  "I know how," exclaimed Mum. "It's time for a haircut!"

4	Mum put some newspapers on the floor and sat Edwin in a chair. Then she was ready to cut Edwin's hair.
5	Snip! Mum took a little off the top. Snip! She took some off the back. Then she cut a lot off the sides. "It doesn't look right," said Dad. "One side is too long. Let me try." Snip! went Dad.
6	"Now the other side is too long," Mum complained. "Let's see if I can fix it." Snip! Snip! "It's still not right," said Dad. "Let me take a bit more off this side."
7	Edwin's mum and dad took turns snipping and trimming, but the more they snipped, the worse things got. Edwin's hair got more and more crooked.

Part Two: Comprehension Conversation

Beginning with the first prompt, have a conversation with the student. Note the key understandings the student expresses. Use the prompts to give you information about the student's understanding. Score for evidence of all understandings expressed—with or without a prompt. For scoring details, see the rubric in the Assessment Guide. Circle the number in the score column that reflects the level of understanding demonstrated.

Comprehension Scoring Key

- 3 Student demonstrates proficiency in understanding the text.
- 2 Student is approaching proficiency in understanding the text.
- 1 Student demonstrates limited proficiency in understanding the text.
- 0 Student's comprehension is not proficient.

Key Understandings	Prompts	Score
Beyond and About the Text Edwin hates his haircut because it looks awful. It looks so bad that he is embarrassed to go to school. His face looks shocked in the picture. Edwin doesn't care if other kids tease him about his wig hat. He just goes on and does everything he always did. He stands up for himself in the end when he says he will pick out the barber. The beginning and ending of the story are alike because Edwin needs a haircut, but in the end he changes his mind about who should cut his hair. Edwin looks shocked at his haircut. Dad's thoughts in the balloon tell us Edwin doesn't realise that his hair is even worse in the back. Sample response: I didn't want to wear my brother's shirt so I just turned it inside out. That's different from Edwin's problem because he just wore the hat and let people tease him. (Accept logical responses that make a connection between the student's personal experiences and the content.) Note any additional understandings:	How do you think Edwin feels when he first looks at himself with his new haircut? How do you know? What kind of kid is Edwin? What is he like? What makes you think that? How are the beginning and ending parts of the story alike? How are they different? Look at the picture on page 8. How do the author and the illustrator make this book funny? Tell about a problem you've had like Edwin's.	0   1   2   3
